

Constitution of Mark1615 Movement

1. Name

The organisation shall be called Mark1615 Movement (hereinafter referred to as “the Organisation”).

2. Legal Status

The Organisation is a voluntary association, established under the laws of the Republic of South Africa.

- It has its own separate legal identity, independent of its members.
 - It shall continue to exist even if its membership changes.
 - Members or office bearers have no rights to the assets or property of the Organisation.

3. Vision and Mission

Vision:

To be a Christ-centred movement of students and young professionals who live out the Great Commission (Mark 16:15) by serving communities in need with love, compassion, and dignity.

Mission:

- To feed the hungry, care for the needy, and support education through outreach programmes and drives that contribute to sustainable community development with local stakeholders.
 - To mobilise and empower young professionals and youth by building transparent, accountable systems for planning, funding, and executing community upliftment initiatives.

4. Objectives

The objectives of the Organisation are:

1. To run structured food, clothing, and educational outreach projects that meet immediate needs while fostering long-term development.
 2. To train and mobilise young professionals and youth to lead community initiatives using their skills, networks, and resources.
 3. To establish partnerships with churches, NGOs, businesses, and local leaders for sustainability and impact.
 4. To ensure transparent governance and compliance with the Nonprofit Organisations Act, 1997 through professional and digital systems.

5. Income and Property

- The Organisation shall keep proper records of all income and expenditure.
 - The Organisation's income and property are not distributable to its members or office-bearers, except as reasonable compensation for services rendered.
 - Funds shall only be used to further the objectives of the Organisation.
 - All financial transactions must be authorised by the Executive Committee and supported by valid documentation.
 - The Organisation shall prepare annual financial statements, which shall be independently reviewed or audited where required by law or donor agreements.
 - If the Organisation is wound up or dissolved, its remaining assets shall not be distributed to members but shall be transferred to another registered nonprofit organisation or public benefit organisation with similar objectives.

6. Financial Year and Reporting

- The financial year of the Organisation shall run from 1 March to the last day of February each year (or another period as determined by the Executive Committee).
 - At the end of each financial year, the Organisation shall prepare an Annual Report containing:
 1. A narrative report on its activities and achievements.
 2. Annual financial statements reflecting income, expenditure, assets, and liabilities.
 - The Annual Report shall be submitted to the Department of Social Development as required by the Nonprofit Organisations Act, 1997, and shall be made available to members and donors.
 - The Organisation shall ensure that its records and accounts are available for inspection by members and relevant authorities upon request.
